

SCHOOL OF THE AMERICAS

Providing Advanced Training and Military Courtesy to Latin America's Next Generation of Leaders

The Old Way

Up against the wall, pig dog!

Shut Up! Or I will silence you permanently!

How dare you meddle in our internal affairs, harlot!

You will remain here until your body rots, and rats peck at your manhood.

Excellency, the rebels have surrounded the Palace!

Assemble all the traitors, and liquidate them.

Minister, please fly this valise full of currency to Zurich immediately.

Sex & Drugs, Si! Rock & Roll, No!

Will no one rid me of this troublesome priest?

We just received a generous bribe from United Fruit.

Deposit $100,000 in small, unmarked bills in the Saguaro Cactus on the edge of the ravine.

There are three Congressmen arriving on a fact-finding mission. Provide them with the usual amenities and distractions.

The New Way

What color blindfold might I interest you in?

You have the right to remain silent. I recommend you do so.

How dare you meddle in our internal affairs, Mother Superior?

Is there anything I can get for you to make your stay with us as pleasant as possible?

Mister President, a loosely organized, but heavily armed contingent of the citizenry wish to speak with you.

Women and children first.

Minister, please invest these funds in tax-free municipal bonds that offer maximum yield.

I'd like $1.0 million in negotiable bearer bonds, 60 Stinger Missiles with launchers, and a 401(k) plan.

Good evening, Cardinal. So glad you could join us for dinner!

United Fruit's PAC has just made a most generous donation to our reelection campaign fund.

Please transfer $100,000 electronically to my Swiss account.
